Skull Fractured When Motorcyclist and Automobile Collide

Ptomaine Poisoning Causes The Death Of Young Wife

FRITZ SGHEIZA IS SERIOUSLY HURT BUT WILL RECOVER

Dairy Ranch Employee On Motorbike Runs Into Car Near Schellville and Is Badly Hurt.

Last Sunday morning as Fritz Sgheiza, employee of the A. Crivelli dairy ranch, was coming into Sonoma on his motorbike, he collided with a car driven by Mr. Hanley of the former Marti ranch. It appears that young Sgheiza misunderstood the signal given by the auto owner, who turned from the road to go into his ranch near the San Luis schoolhouse. Sgheiza, it is said, thought Hanley was going to turn to the left into the Watt ranch and steered his motorbike to the right. As a result, he hit the auto with full force, inflicting serious injury to himself as his head came in contact with the machine. The young man was immediately rushed to Dr. Thomson's office and later removed to the Burnside sanitarium, where it was found he was suffering from a fractured skull. An operation was performed Monday and the patient immediately rallied and will probably recover.

Sgheiza has been a highly regarded employee of the Crivelli ranch and his first thought upon recovering consciousness was of his job.

The victim of the accident is a son of Mrs. Rose Sgheiza of the Petaluma road.

It is already apparent that many athletes are interested in the holiday race.

OLD LANDMARK BEING REMODELED

Owing to the expense which the rebuilding of the present steeple of the Congregational church would entail, it has been decided to remodel that part of the church. The familiar landmark is undergoing repairs by Contractor Bean and the edifice is being painted by Contractor Bulotti.

George Fetter May Purchase An Aeroplane

It is reported that George Fetter contemplates buying an airplane and learning to fly. Fetter, the up to date and wealthy resort owner, may master aircraft navigation in time to do his Christmas shopping. It is said he is tired of crowded highways, does not want to wait for the Golden Gate Bridge and so has decided to negotiate for a plane in order to give his guests next season the pick of the markets in San Francisco, and quick messenger service. Bon voyage, George!

BRILLIANT CEREMONY AT O. E. S. INSTALLATION

New Worthy Matron Ida Hotz Installed Tuesday Evening With Officers for Coming Year.

Tuesday evening at Masonic Temple, the new officers of Valley of the Moon Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, were installed with the customary beautiful ceremony. The hall was crowded to capacity with members of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges and their families, and they witnessed as brilliant an installation as was ever seen within the portals of the lodge rooms.

The retiring matron, Hattie Breitenbach, installed the incoming officers, including her successor, Worthy Matron Ida Hotz, with stately and impressive dignity, and the new Worthy Matron received the honor and responsibility conferred upon her in a manner which presages a successful and happy term of office. Mrs. Hotz has had experience in executive work and has a charm of personality which assures her co-operation, harmony and further honors in the Order. She looked most charming as she took office in a becoming gown of coral velvet with feather trimming.

The customary jewels were presented to the retiring officers, Mrs. Breitenbach and Worthy Patron Charles Potter, who acknowledged them in appreciative words. In addition to the jewel, Mr. Potter received special honors for his efficient and loyal four years' service as Patron. His successor, Charles C. Champlin, was among those installed. Mr. Champlin being wished every success in the new office.

Retiring Matron Breitenbach was presented with a beautiful box of glassware, and upon Worthy Matron Hotz was bestowed a handsome gift basket of flowers.

The installation ceremony music was played by Mrs. Schieck and solo numbers were rendered by Zolita Bates, vocalist, and Lyle Campbell, violin.

Officers installed were as follows: Worthy Matron, Ida Hotz; Worthy Patron, C. C. Champlin; Associate Matron, Edna Cooper; Conductress, Nell Clements; Associate Conductress, Mary Nicol; Secretary, Nettie McConochie; Treasurer, Anna Pemberton; Warder, Petra Jessen; Outside Sentinel, Fred Eberhardt; Adah, Zolita Bates; Ruth, Audrey Hendry; Esther, Margaret Smith; Martha, Nina Eberhardt; Electa, Florence Ro-

Congressman Lea to Recommend Sonoma, Considered During the World War

Rumors are current that Sonoma Valley may be offered as a possible location for the U. S. Army Air Base in as much as Crissy Field San Francisco is declared to be located in a fog area and otherwise inadequate. Congressman Lea was of the official committee of Congress which investigated and secured data on army flying needs while here and now that he is back in Washington, will undoubtedly be called upon to suggest favorable sites where army flying can be fully developed and taken care of.

The reputation Sonoma Valley has of being free from fogs and winds and the fact that it is in close proximity to Mare Island Navy Yard, Benicia Arsenal and San Francisco bay should commend it to those seeking a better site for aviation than is now in use. It is understood that Crissy Field would be retained but the main base would be established elsewhere.

Sonoma Valley was considered by aviation experts during the recent world war and army officials visited El Verano, surveyed that locality for the purpose and were very favorably impressed with conditions.

If Sonoma were to be the headquarters of any division of the U. S. army, history would be repeating itself as Sonoma was an army post in the forties.

MRS. ALFRED RUBKE UNIQUELY ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Alfred Rubke of Schellville entertained the Flying Needles Wednesday at a unique indoor picnic at her attractive bungalow. Decorations from the hills, picnic ground signs, weenie roast on willow sticks over the fire place and lunch spread on the "ground" were features.

NATIVE SONS HAD A GALA INITIATION

The initiation of prominent young men of Sonoma and Glen Ellen Parlor of Native Sons into the Order Monday night was the occasion of joint installation ceremonies at which the members of both Parlor fraternized and joined in a gala time in Sonoma's I. O. O. F. Hall. The initiates were Bunker Dresel, Wm. Camp, E. Franquelin, P. Rouquie, Geo. Silva, Vic. Erlebach, Wm. Cowan, and L. Gemini. A turkey banquet prepared by a committee headed by Philip Bill was enjoyed after the ceremonies. Prof. Prestwood was toastmaster and there was repartee and song throughout the evening.

The Bear Flag monument fund was enriched to the amount of $591 through the sale of prize tickets, many of which were sold to San Francisco Parlor where most of the luck proved to be. A drinking fountain is planned to grace the lawn planted by the Sonoma Native Sons on the historic site of the Bear Flag raising.

FARM BUREAU LADIES MEET

Mrs. Ludwig was hostess to the Farm Bureau ladies at the last meeting. A delightful and instructive afternoon was enjoyed. A dress form for Mrs. W. W. Hall was completed and delicious refreshments served.

Mrs. E. T. Casson will entertain the Farm Bureau Auxiliary on December 10th.

bin; Organist, Louise Rubke; Marshal, Hattie Breitenbach; Chaplain, Edna Stillings.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies all repaired to the banquet hall, where a fine supper was enjoyed amid festive decorations and social merriment.

VICTIM OF A PAINFUL ACCIDENT

J. B. Parrent, the local tailor, had the misfortune to have a nail strike his eyeglasses while he was doing some carpenter work around home, the glasses being shattered and particles of the glass getting into his eye. The glass was removed without injury to his sight and Mr. Parrent is now recovering.

ACCEPT RIGHTS OF WAY FOR SEWER

The acceptance of seven or eight rights of way for the proposed sewer extension by the City of Sonoma at the meeting of the Board Wednesday night indicates the intention to proceed with the $30,000 sewer bond election. Those who donated the rights of way across their property according to easements on file are C. Poncia, Helen Johnson, Adams, Rubke, Dresel, Bosch and the California state highway. Other deeds are in the process of delivery to the city.

Foster & Kleiser, bill board advertisers, appealed to the trustees for a reduction on their tax of $100 a year. The pavement being put in by the city at Napa and First Street East is costing 27.3 cents per square foot, or a total of $341.27. The city is doing the work under the direction of R. C. Specht and R. Quartaroli.

Adjournment was taken Wednesday evening to two weeks hence.

The stork, a holiday bird in the Valley of the Moon, has been delivering the goods to the Burnside Sanitarium in ample time for Christmas, and this week arrived with a baby girl for Mrs. Inez Sorensen, formerly Miss Inez Bonnevecchio of Glen Ellen. A week or so ago a little son was delivered at the same hospital to Mrs. Ginnini, who was Miss Angelina Bonnevecchio of Glen Ellen. Mothers and babes are doing nicely. The children make Mrs. Meglin, of Glen Ellen, a proud grandmother.

EMMA MERRIAM'S ATTORNEY'S ASK FEE

Aftermath of Fight to Regain Property From Otto Brandt Is Claim of Lawyers Who Won Case.

The sad case of Emma Merriam, once the handsome and only daughter of a wealthy Sonoma Valley family, now an incompetent and shorn of a great part of her fortune, has been brought to light again in Oakland, where Miss Merriam's attorneys, Boyer & Havens, are seeking a large fee from the court for having won several cases against Otto Brandt, of Schellville, to whom she made over much of her property.

An Oakland dispatch says: "The size of a fee for services where an attorney, unassisted by his client, recovers property valued at $121,000 was the question put up to Superior Judge George Samuels this week in the estate of Emma Merriam an incompetent.

"The question was brought up by Attorney James Boyer of the firm of Boyer & Havens. In sketching the facts to the court Boyer declared that evidence presented in court during four trials, two in Santa Rosa, one in Oakland and one in Los Angeles, showed that Miss Merriam, who owned property in Oakland, Los Angeles and near Sonoma, had deeded her property to Otto H. Brandt. She was then charged with being an incompetent and a pauper.

"Boyer and his partner, Joseph Havens, were retained by heirs of the woman to recover the property. All expenses of the trial were paid out by them, and two years of work resulted in the recovery of the entire property.

"Boyer summoned numerous attorneys to the stand to testify as to the value of his services. The estimates ran from $30,000 to $40,000 with the case taken on a contingent fee basis. The price of $20,000 was set without the contingent fee element entering the case.

"Among the attorneys who testified that 33 1-3 per cent was a proper fee were M. C. Chapman, Peter J. Crosby and Roscoe D. Jones of Oakland, and E. F. Treadwell of San Francisco.

Mrs. C. C. Cowgill has returned from a pleasant trip of ten days to Los Angeles. She made the trip down on the steamer Yale, returning by train.

Attorney Emil Locarnini of Napa was in town Wednesday on legal business.

UNTIMELY DEATH OF MRS. JOHN VINCENT SHOCK TO FAMILY

Daughter of Prominent Family Succumbs After Illness Caused By Eating Canned Salmon.

A victim of ptomaine poison, caused by eating coned salmon, Mrs. John Vincent of El Verano passed away Friday of last week at a local sanitarium after a brave fight to overcome the effects of illness with which she was taken down a few days previous. After eating heartily of the fish, she complained and for several days suffered pain and with more alarming symptoms Dr. Thomson was finally summoned. He immediately had her conveyed to the hospital and a heroic fight was made to save the young wife and mother. The deadly effects of the ptomaine, however, had so permeated her system that medical skill availed not, and she died Friday, having passed into a semi-conscious state before the end came.

Emily T. Vincent was born in San Francisco 33 years ago, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Mullen, pioneer residents of Sonoma Valley. Some years ago she was left a widow and married John Vincent of El Verano, who survives her, together with five little daughters. Four brothers, Emmet, Tom, Michael and Mitchell Mullen, and one sister, Mrs. Camora, of San Francisco, mourn with the parents her untimely death.

The funeral was held from St. Francis church Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. F. Byrne officiating at the last sad rites. The pallbearers were A. Dutil, George Weaver, Joe Danieli, James Kearney, O. T. Wilkerson and R. R. Emparan. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

UNTIMELY DEATH OF GLEN ELLEN WOMAN

Mrs. H. Monk, who has resided with her husband on the former Miner place near Glen Ellen, died in San Francisco this week following an operation for tumor of the stomach. Her Sonoma friends were greatly shocked to hear of the passing of this bright and energetic woman who had apparently enjoyed good health.

Deceased was a trained nurse by profession and with her husband bought the ranch near Glen Ellen about three years ago. Mr. Monk has been an engineer connected with the San Joaquin Light and Power Company plant.

Miss McDonnell, local librarian, attended the funeral, conducted by the Eastern Star, in San Francisco.

SAILED FOR EUROPE THANKSGIVING DAY

Henry Koerner writes to his wife at Oak Grove that he sailed from New York on Thanksgiving morning for the old country. He was taken around Washington to all the famous places of interest by Congressman Lea, who showed every courtesy to the visitor from his home valley.

RAID FOLLOWS ARREST OF SONOMA BOYS

Chief of Police Herritt, aided by Policemen Algeo, Kermode and Gladden, raided the Stone House at the corner of Main and Clinton streets, Napa, at a late hour Monday night and found there a small quantity of wine.

Whether the evidence is sufficient to warrant the arrest of C. Ceriani, the proprietor, remains undecided.

Chief Herritt will confer with City Attorney York and will act upon that official's advice before taking further steps against Ceriani.

The Chief's raid upon the Stone House followed the arrest of Joseph Giacapazzi and John Mazza, Sonoma youths.

THIS IS PLACE FOR U. S. AIR BASE

With the evident necessity of a better army flying field than Crissy Field, San Francisco, for a government air base, and with the attitude of President Coolidge favorable toward greater development of aviation there is every reason to put forth the advantages of Sonoma Valley and to urge the government to establish its air base here.

Congressman Lea, who recently made extensive investigations of the needs of the air service and will officially report on it now that Congress has reconvened, will no doubt suggest this locality, for he will recall that during the war the government investigated a site near El Verano and considered it at that time for the purpose of aviation.

Sonoma Valley's renowned climate free from fogs and winds, its proximity to the arsenal at Benicia, the navy yard at Mare Island and San Francisco harbor, commend it as an air base. There are several large tracts of land suitable for the purpose and we believe that in every way this locality would afford the army opportunity of developing the air service to the highest degree of efficiency.

SCRAPPING OUR WAR SHIPS

In the face of reports that the United States has a defense altogether inadequate in case of foreign attack, it seems a crime to scrap our battle ships for the moral effect of peace. "Build no more battle ships" would be a reasonable and lofty slogan, ing with them for a visit. They enjoyed seeing the "Ten Commandments," and other popular photoplays while Mr. Whitehead, a brother of Mrs. McAllister, is looking after the ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Helberg, Jr., and baby were guests on Thanksgiving of relatives in Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potter and relatives from Vallejo and San Francisco enjoyed the usual fine turkey dinner on Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rambo, nee Bertha Dakin, visited at the Cooper-Harris home over the holiday.

Mrs. E. R. Hinman had a visit from her sister from San Francisco Thanksgiving.

Mrs. William Canning has been visiting her children and their families in San Francisco.

The Pauli-Hoegemann folks had a visit Sunday from Mr. and Mrs. Moser of Santa Rosa.

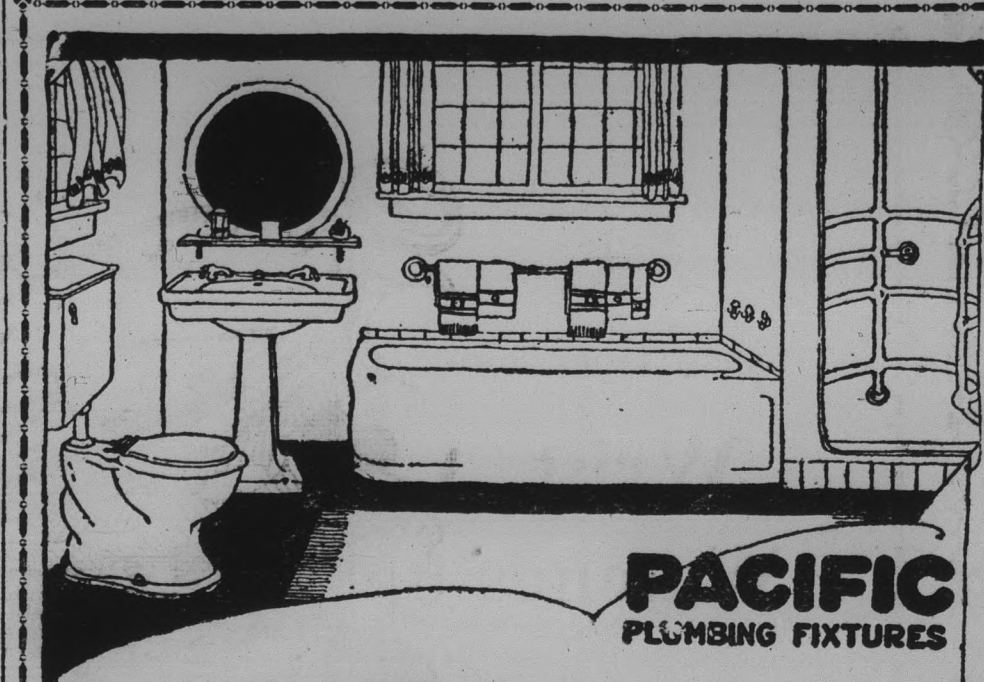

U. Marymee has been enjoying a few days in the bay region.

but to sink what has cost the nation millions of dollars and is necessary to national security, savors of sinister influence, not inspired by the high motives which proponents of peace believe to be the underlying one of disarmament.

There is too much appeal to the lofty idealism of the American people of today—the appeal of demagogues who, when they get the minds and eyes of the public fixed upon a great Utopia, put over the program which really was the underlying motive of the propaganda.

The United States aims to live up to its disarmament program but might well probe the depths of the idea and find who are really behind the "magnificent plan" which has culminated in the wanton destruction of ships, such as the "Washington."

High School News

By FRANCES MURPHY

The entertainment for the Senior party is reported to be well under way by the committee in charge. The program is as follows: Two plays, entitled "Teeth of the Gift Horse" and a Christmas play, both by Senior members of the drama class; a reading, "Levinisky at the Wedding" by Glenn Ehlers; a piano solo by Grace Barr; a vocal duet "The Sheep Are In the Fold" by Glenn Ehlers and Herbert Tracy. In addition there will be several other stunts by the class. The school is anticipating a extraordinary evening of pleasure. This is the regular Christmas party and will take place on December 12th, the last day before vacation.

The girls of the various physical training classes are beginning the basket ball season. Later on teams will be chosen of the best from each class, which will compete for the school championship.

Hurrah! The unlimited basket ball team of the Junior Farm Bureau are champions. They have won all the games of the Farm Bureau League. On Tuesday afternoon they completed their victory by defeating Analy with a score of 18 to 10. The game was played on Analy's court. The 130 pound Aggies had to forget the game to Analy as they could not get there in time.

We are all glad to see Miss Warthorst, our science instructor, back from a week's absence, due to sickness. The students are also back to their scientific studies once more.

A big, double decker program was enjoyed at the high school on Friday evening, December 5th. A very exciting game between Analy Hi and Sonoma took place. There were five reels of interesting motion pictures and a one act play, "Followers," by Frances Murphy, Frances Perry, William Duffin and Irene White. A dance and P. T. A. meeting followed.

The girls of the interior decorating class are drawing the floor plans for ideal living rooms. When these are completed, a color scheme will be worked out for them.

The social science class was welcomed back to school after Thanksgiving by an "ex", the subject matter of which the students had completely forgotten. Many thanks to Professor Golton.

The music theory class as one of its members expressed it, is being "stepped in a delicious bath of joy," having departed from the "inferno" of scales and entered the paradise of note taking and the writings of famous composers and their works.

An old machine which the auto mechanics class is overhauling has been given to them by the Ford Garage. This will increase the mechanical knowledge of the class and give them practical experience. We only hope the Ford will go after it is repaired by the class.

A delightful Thanksgiving program was presented at the regular bi-weekly assembly on Wednesday, November 26th. A one act play, "The Marriage Proposal," was put on by the drama class, the cast consisting of Fay Fowler, Henri Balios and Walter Carter. A reading, "The Frost Is On the Pumpkin," by James Whitcomb Riley, was given by Bradford Champlin. Several selections by the orchestra were enjoyed. During assembly the two days' vacation was announced, and although it had been expected, there was much applause.

Bob Pattison, who will be remembered as the popular dispenser at the Elite and who is now in Connecticut where he is running an oil station sent Thanksgiving greetings to many of his Sonoma friends.
